Medical offices bring $1.6 million

New York investors have purchased the Lutheran Hospital Medical Offices building for $1.6 million, according to property records. I&L Holding Co. LLC bought the 5,800-square-foot building, at 6412 Franklin Ave., Cleveland, from local owners Franklin Square Ltd. The sellers were represented by Dan Cooper and Bob Havasi of the Cooper Commercial Investment Group of the NAI Daus brokerage firm in Cleveland. The deal closed July 2. Lutheran Hospital offers primary care in the recently renovated building.
