Cleveland's Cooper Commercial Investment Group recently helped close the sale of a CVS Pharmacy in Richmond, Va.

The 10,800-square-foot property was built in 1999 and sits at a busy intersection.

The pharmacy sold for $2.9 million. Dan Cooper of Cooper Commercial represented the owners, a private East Coast company. Cooper also found the buyers, a private group based in Texas.

Cooper was able to secure these buyers within 10 days of marketing the property.
